Terminus (Fringe Worlds #1) By Kevin Hardman

Master Sergeant Gant Maker was a highly-decorated and well-respected Marine - until his last mission left him as the sole survivor of an encounter with a vicious race called the Vacra. Served up as a scapegoat and drummed out of the military, he has since lived a life of seclusion with only an adopted alien as a companion. Now the Vacra have returned. As the only person to have ever faced them and survived, Maker is reinstated in the Corps and given the onerous task of finding this enemy on a world located at the edge of known space. Assisting him is an unlikely band of military rejects, including a blind sharpshooter, an unstable psychic, and a genetically-engineered killing machine who refuses to fight. Given that the Vacra have superior weapons and technology, Maker recognizes that his team is at a distinct disadvantage. But Marines are nothing if not resourceful, and Maker has an audacious plan that just may level the playing field – if it doesn't get them all killed.

John Pierre:

As a pupil exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Terminus (Fringe Worlds #1) can make you sense more interested to read.
