A House for Mr Biswas (Chinese Edition) By V S Naipaul

Mr. Biswas, who is a descendant of Indian and born in Trinidad, has been depending on others for a living since young. When he grows up, to shake off poverty, he marries into a rich family, where he has to behave himself to entertain other people. His lifetime dream is to have a house. When his dream comes true, he finds that mortgage and the necessities of life make him heavily in debt. When his children come back to their country after they finish their study abroad, he finally can continue to write, which he loves so much. However, by then, he has no chance any more.
