The Death of Hip Hop, Marriage & Morals: Helping youth resurrect culture, family and faith (The MORE-ality Series) (Volume 1) By Brady Goodwin Jr

The 2nd Edition: Part text-message, part text-book; academic and yet accessible- this is a work of translation between three cultures. Grammy nominated Christian rap artist, Brady "Phanatik Goodwin" has combed through and combined hundreds of hours of media content, research and first-hand experience to connect the dots between Hip Hop, history and the hereafter, painting a compelling picture for urban America. Goodwin brings parents, professors and pastors up to speed on conversations taking place at the street level; while bringing the "streets" up to speed on the discussions of the college classroom and the corner church. This is a must read for anyone concerned about, working with or raising urbanized youth.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Brady Goodwin co-founded the pioneering Christian rap/recording ministry The Cross Movement with whom he has been nominated for two Grammy Awards (2006 and 2008). He has traveled nonstop across the country and across the ocean for fourteen years speaking to youth and young adults about the integration of faith and culture. Fueled by a desire to see the faith and values of the older transmitted to his generation and those that follow, Brady has developed and taught character education in Philadelphia's public schools since 2008. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Bible and Christian Service degree from Lancaster Bible College (2009).
