Think Success: A Collection of Writings on Success and Achievement through Positive Thinking By Jayaram V

In 44 articles presented in two separate volumes, Jayaram V, the noted writer, philosopher, founder of Hinduwebsite.com and an authority on eastern religions, teaches you how to achieve success and peace in life by transforming your thoughts and taking responsibility for your life, through positive thinking and attitude. Jayaram brings to you his years of personal study, insight, observation and experience in understanding human nature and how we can transform ourselves, consciously and effectively, by expanding our awareness and developing faith in ourselves and our ability to accomplish our chosen goals. In these articles, Jayaram provides a unique perspective on life, combining western pragmatism with eastern idealism. According to Jayaram, every human being is a sleeping giant, endowed with immense potentials and resources. Once awakened through conscious and disciplined effort, there are no limits to what one can achieve. To be happy and alive, you just need to wake up your resting aspirations, find your direction, and live more consciously and purposefully, overcoming your limited thinking and self-doubts. You can be successful in life, if you are willing to spend enough time and energy on the idea, if you are honest enough to look at yourself objectively and consider the possibilities that are available to you. This book is bound to stretch your mind and expand your vision, if you are willing to consider the immense possibilities that are available to you and spend enough time and energy to prepare yourself for the great journey called your life. You can become a master of success and source of abundance for yourself and others, by following the suggestions available in this book. It does not matter what your circumstances are. What matters most is how stable you are, how firmly you believe in the possibilities of your success and how you keep yourself motivated, independent of the circumstances in your life.
